

Polio Cases Running Way Ahead Of 2nd Worst Year In U. S.

6,971 Now; 1944 Pace Was 4,176

Lansing, July 28 (AP)—The state health department received reports of 36 new cases of infantile paralysis today to increase Michigan's case load to a new record high of 306. This compared with 59 cases for the same date last year.

(By The Associated Press) Infantile paralysis cases in 1949 are running far ahead of 1944—the second worst polio year in U. S. history.

An Associated Press survey today showed 6,971 cases over the nation through July 27, with 337 polio deaths.

No new polio cases have been reported in the Delta county area, and the incidence of the disease in the Upper Peninsula is "normal" for this season but usually reaches its peak in September. It was reported today by Dr. M. Cooperstock, Crippled Children's Clinic director, Marquette.

In the Upper Peninsula since Jan. 1 there have been five or six cases from Chippewa county, some of them recent; seven in Menominee and one in Delta, all earlier in the year and largely centered in the Powers-Spalding community.

In 1944 the total for the same date was 4,176. Totals for 1944 eventually reached 19,029, topped only by 27,363 in 1916.

The U. S. Public Health Service in Washington reported the 6,339 cases as of July 23 this year were 38.4 per cent higher than the 4,580 reported through the same date in 1948—and 1948 was a near-record year.

Gain With Heat
The polio appeared to be gaining strength with the hot weather. Government figures showed 1,441 new cases during the week ending July 23. This was an increase of 47.5 per cent over the same week of 1948, which had 979. In 1944, there were 915 new cases for the week ending July 27.

For the most part the polio upsurge appeared to be fairly evenly distributed over the nation. Only scattered epidemic areas were reported.

At least 33 states reported a step-up in the polio rate, while eight showed a decline.

Nineteen states have had more

TVA Has 1,000,000 Power Customers

Humboldt, Tenn., July 28 (AP)—The Tennessee Valley Authority, the government's power colossus of the south, plugs in its one-millionth customer here today.

With elaborate ceremony, the farm of 50-year-old Shester Williams will be turned into an electrical paradise after years of oil lamps and wood stoves.

A large group of public power officials were invited to see the Williams home, with new electrical appliances—range, refrigerator, deep freeze unit, hot water heater and a pump to make obsolete the old oaken bucket that hangs in the well.

TVA Director James P. Pope of Knoxville paid tribute to the TVA distributors who ran power lines to a million valley homes, farms and businesses.

Army Calls For Molars For Teeth Decay Study

By FRANK CAREY

Washington, July 28 (AP)—The army is looking for teeth—freshly-pulled molars for use in studies of dental decay.

The idea is to test a couple of anti-decay solutions.

Research is underway at the army's research and graduate school, and the word has gone out to army dentists to send in teeth.

When a reporter asked if teeth yanked by civilian dentists would be welcomed the answer was:

Sure, glad to get them.

The army wants molar teeth that are newly extracted, and which are not decayed. That is, they must be teeth that have been pulled for reasons other than decay.

The dental division will furnish self-addressed franked containers, made of metal, on request. Extracted teeth from only one patient should be placed in the bottle that will be found in the mailing container. The age, sex, place of birth of the patient should be written on the label of the bottle; also the place of residence during the first eight years of life. Finally, the date of extractions should also be listed.

Here's what the army is doing:

It's studying the effect of pre-treating the teeth with one or the other of two solutions—and then exposing the teeth to germs which cause decay.

The solutions are:

1. Sodium fluoride. U. S. public health service researchers have said this can decrease decay by 40 per cent.

2. A compound containing potassium ferrocyanide, zinc chloride and silver nitrate, developed by Dr. Bernard Gottlieb of Baylor University, Texas. The army says Dr. Gottlieb has reported that decay can be reduced 90 per cent with this material.

20% Luxury Taxes May Be Eliminated

Barkley Thinks Congress May Act On Proposal

Chicago, July 28 (AP)—There is a possibility that congress will act at this session on proposals to eliminate the 20 per cent excise tax on so-called luxury items, says Vice President Barkley.

"I'm not saying this session of congress will act," Barkley said, "but it is possible."

He said President Truman "is just as anxious to eliminate the wartime excise taxes as anyone."

He said proposals to end the tax on jewelry, furs, toiletries, luggage and similar items are getting attention from "everybody in government," including Mr. Truman.

"I don't know when they will be reduced or eliminated," Barkley said last night, "but as soon as it can be done in fairness to everyone—the industry, the people and the government—it will be done."

Barkley, addressing the National Association of Credit Jewelers' convention, said the administration looks toward eventually reducing taxes.

"But for the present we must meet our obligations," he said. "We must pay off the national debt, meet our obligations to our veterans, support the cause of democracy and keep our nation strong."

Port Huron, Mich., July 28 (AP)—A new Port Huron-Maryville "community coalition" of business, labor, and government was set today to tackle the problem of an unemployment rate of 131 out of every 1,000 workers.

Civic leaders met Tuesday and set up a committee under the joint chairmanship of Port Huron Mayor Frank O. Staiger and Maryville Mayor Clarence Kersten.

The two promised yesterday that "within a very few days" they would take preliminary steps toward creating jobs through the group.

O. K. Fjelland of the Michigan unemployment compensation commission spoke at the opening committee meeting, outlining self-help measures underway in Muskegon, Jackson and Benton Harbor-St. Joseph.

Barkley Was Not Shopping For Rice

Chicago, July 28 (AP)—Vice President Barkley says he wasn't shopping for a wedding ring when he spoke at the National Association of Credit Jewelers' convention last night.

The 71 year old widower, after his address, told reporters:

"Don't ask me about any woman in St. Louis. I'm not here to buy a wedding ring, as one of you suggested."

Barkley stopped at St. Louis last Sunday and paid a social visit to Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley, a St. Louis widow he met recently in Washington.

Rex Beach, Noted Novelist, Is Ill

Miami, Fla., July 28 (AP)—Rex Beach, noted novelist who was hospitalized Sunday with a throat ailment, was reported "very much improved" today.

Beach, who will be 72 years old Sept. 1, is still seriously ill but physicians at Doctors' hospital in suburban Coral Gables said he was better last night and even "walking around a little bit."

Portugal Ratifies Atlantic Alliance

Lisbon, Portugal, July 28 (AP)—The North Atlantic alliance was ratified by the Portuguese National assembly yesterday. The vote was 80 to 3, with the opposing votes cast by members who wanted Spain included.

Cocaine Smuggling Increase Reported

Peru Promises Control Of Drug Factories

Washington, July 28 (AP)—"Extremely disturbing" increases in the smuggling of the drug cocaine into the United States were reported today by the narcotics bureau.

Up to now, it said, there had not been any considerable traffic in cocaine, or the use of it, in this country.

The U. S. recently got from Peru a promise that steps would be taken to control the cocaine factories in that country so the drug would not be diverted into underworld channels in the U. S.

Shanghai, Rangoon, Calcutta and Singapore were described in the report as "hotbeds of narcotics activities" on the basis of advice the bureau said it obtained from incoming merchant seamen.

Conservation Law Cases Total 525

Lansing, July 28 (AP)—A total of 525 conservation law violations were recorded by the conservation department in June. The violators paid a total of $8,402 in fines and costs.

There were 569 convicted violators in May and 693 in June last year.

Fishing law violations accounted for the bulk of June arrests. Fishing without a license was the most frequent offense accounting for 167 of the arrests. There were 157 arrests for fishing in closed season, 40 for possession of undersize fish, 21 for fishing with set lines and 20 for killing deer in closed season.

Start Research For Better Flags

Washington, July 28 (AP)—The Star Spangled Banner—longer may save wave.

That's the goal of a research project undertaken by the public buildings administration, which buys flags for more than 1,500 buildings at a cost of about $15,000 a year.

The average cotton-and-wool bunting flag lasts 27 days, buildings Commissioner W. E. Reynolds told reporters. The flags fade and tear more quickly in winter than in summer, and some areas are harder on flags than others. On buildings in the windy, foggy San Francisco bay area, for example, at least one new flag must be installed every day, Reynolds said.

Worker Is Injured In Five-Story Fall

Detroit, July 28 (AP)—A 46-year-old cement worker was in serious condition today after he fell five stories from scaffolding on the People's Outfitting Co. department store Wednesday.

The victim, Arthur Tounignant, suffered a concussion, a broken left arm, and possible internal injuries. He was working on the building exterior when he lost his balance and toppled off. His hammer and chisel just missed a group of pedestrians en route on the sidewalk.

FOREIGN AID BILL

Washington, July 28 (AP)—A confused senate—tangled in its own complex rules—grasped for a way today to reach a vote on the big foreign aid bill. The whole vast issue was thrown back into the lap of the senate appropriations committee late yesterday on a technical point, leaving the senate just where it stood two weeks ago.

JOYCE ACQUITTED—Joyce Schumaker, 18, who was acquitted by a jury in the murder trial in the Waukegan, Ill., court yesterday, is shown resting on a cot in the courthouse during a recess period. Her mother and defense lawyer, S. H. Block, talk with the girl who was accused of fatally shooting her married lover, Carl Reeder, 52, last April 4 on the Waukegan lakefront.

Free Waukegan Girl Of Murder Charge

Waukegan, Ill., July 28 (AP)—Joyce Schumaker, an 18 year old blonde girl, was released from the Lake county jail last night, freed by a jury of murdering her 53 year old paramour.

There was an outburst of cheers from the courtroom as the clerk read the circuit court jury's verdict, which was reached after about 40 minutes deliberation.

Many bobby soxers, former schoolmates of Joyce, were among the courtroom crowd of 200.

"I was really worried until I heard the verdict," Joyce said as she embraced her mother. "I feel wonderful. It is a wonderful surprise. I have never stopped praying in four months."

Spectators crowded around Joyce to share her hand as her mother combed her daughter's hair before newspaper photographers snapped her picture.

Joyce, 17 pounds lighter after her four months in jail awaiting trial for the slaying of Carl Reeder, 53 year old school clerk, said she was uncertain about her future.

She said she may become a missionary or, perhaps, a professional soft ball player.

Her mother, Mrs. Edna Schumaker, said the family will leave Waukegan so her daughter "can start life anew and finish high school. She quit attending Waukegan high school, where she met Reeder, last September and worked in a towel laundry."

Woman Swept Into Gutter By Torrent

Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., July 28 (AP)—A violent and freakish thunderstorm yesterday swept a woman down a gutter and into a sewage culvert to her death.

Witnesses said the unusual drowning occurred when Mrs. Edna Michel, 54, tried to cross a deep torrent of water in a Washington Place gutter.

The speed and depth of water were enough to knock her down and carry her for two blocks downhill into a drainage culvert.

Horror-stricken spectators told police the woman struggled against a swirling current four feet deep.

Persons who rushed to the rescue were unable to catch her or to release her body until it had been wedged in the culvert for a quarter of an hour, police said.

By that time she had drowned in the pouring rainwaters.

The three-hour downpour snapped trees and power lines, and left many sections of Bergen, Passaic, and Hudson counties without lights or phone service.

In downtown Hackensack, women removed their shoes and stockings to wade across the streets.

'Five Percent' Probe Will Be Continued

Illness of James V. Hunt Will Not Interfere

Washington, July 28 (AP)—A public inquiry into the activities of "five percenters" won't be delayed by the illness of a key figure in the case, Senator Hoey (D-NC) said today.

Hoey told reporters the special investigations subcommittee he heads hopes to start hearings some time next week.

He felt it might be necessary to postpone the inquiry because of the ill health of James V. Hunt, a former army officer and war assets administration employee.

"We still would like to have Hunt on hand at the start, but I find we can get started without him," Hoey said.

Paul Grindle, a Massachusetts manufacturer, has said he paid Hunt $1,000 for help in seeking a government contract. He also said that Hunt claimed influence with two army major generals who have since been suspended.

They are Alden H. Walt, chief of the chemical corps, and Herman Feldman, the quartermaster general.

House Republicans To Challenge Laws

Washington, July 28 (AP)—House Republicans are laying the groundwork to challenge in the courts any major legislation enacted by congress against their wishes after July 31.

With present plans calling for adjournment around the end of August, a considerable volume of major legislation may be enacted after the end of this month. Set for votes next month are minimum wage, health aid to school children, foreign military assistance, and social security extension bills, in addition to some big appropriation measures.

Editors Condemn State Jobs For Newspapermen

Farley Backs Spellman In School Issue

Washington, July 28 (AP)—A board of 15 leading editors has condemned the acceptance of state department salaries by some newspapermen in Illinois, and said newspapers in other regions should find out whether the same thing is happening there.

The 15 editors comprise the board of directors of the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE). The board made a unanimous report on the Illinois affair yesterday after sending a three-man investigating committee to travel over the state and interview people involved.

Here are the board's main conclusions:

It commended the Chicago

Daily News and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for exposing the fact last April that 51 newspapermen were on the Illinois state payroll between 1941 and 1949, during the Republican administration of former governor Dwight H. Green.

It said the wire services should have promptly picked up the story and transmitted it over the country. It said their delay in doing this was due to "faulty news judgement" in their Chicago or St. Louis bureaus and was not due to any "considered intent to suppress the news of the exposures."

It said the Illinois story "should lead newspapers and newspapermen throughout the country to examine their own practices, as well as political practices existing in their localities. The press of the country should be alert to the importance of avoiding not only evil but all appearance of evil."

The board said that of the 892 newspapers in Illinois, fewer than 50 were involved in the payroll affair, and most of these were small, economically weak papers in small communities.

The board did not hold all of the 51 newspapermen to have acted improperly. It said some of them "held legitimate positions, widely known to the public, performing services to the state against which there is no valid criticism."

But the board reported that in the opinion of the three-man investigating committee, a majority of the 51 newspapermen held state jobs that were either "out-right sinecures" or jobs in which their duties were entirely or primarily political.

Arms-For-Europe Bill Begins Rough Road In Congress

Washington, July 28 (AP)—President Truman's belated $1,450,000 Arms-for-Europe bill starts its rough road through congress today.

The House Foreign Affairs committee called for testimony from Secretary of State Acheson, who yesterday appealed to congress not to pass judgment until it hears all the evidence.

Acheson's appeal, made at a news conference, was at least tacit admission that the bill faces plenty of trouble in congress.

Influential members have demanded that the amount of arms assistance proposed by the president be cut sharply, and the whole program be put on an "interim" basis. In this group are some members who in the past have supported the administration's foreign policies.

President Truman asked for a $1,450,000 one-year program to start, most of it for the past nations.

Few members of the House Foreign committee shared the optimism of Chairman Kee (D-W Va.) who predicted that the bill would be approved substantially as drawn after about two weeks of hearings.

The legislation is designed to strengthen the North Atlantic pact.

It would permit the United States to furnish military equipment to pact countries and other nations in the interest of promoting international peace and resisting aggression. Dollar assistance could be furnished to increase arms production in friendly countries.

"In spite of Soviet statements to the contrary," Kee said, "the program is entirely defensive in its nature and scope."

Coastguard, Marine Crews Fight to Keep Ship From Capsizing

Muskegon, July 28 (AP)—Coastguard and marine crews worked desperately today to prevent a Great Lakes coast freighter from capsizing in Muskegon lake.

The 510-foot freighter, the Norman J. Kopmeier, was aground in shallow water with 8,400 tons of coal aboard, and listing heavily to port.

Crews from a marine contractor and from the local coast guard station rushed auxiliary pumps to the ship's crew in an effort to prevent the ship from taking on enough water to cause it to capsize.

The ship, en route from South Chicago, struck an underwater obstruction and was damaged while trying to make port early today. It had entered the breakwater when heavy seas drove it toward the huge rocks which form the north breakwater.

Ballistics Test Absolves Youth

Flint, Mich., July 28 (AP)—A ballistics test today cleared 20-year-old Robert Lemme of Grand Blanc of any connection with the Beatrice Dickerson slaying.

The youth was arrested yesterday when he tried to sell a .38 caliber revolver, the same type of weapon that killed the 17-year-old high school girl July 11.

Police reported the test on the gun showed it did not fire the fatal bullet. However, Lemme was charged with possessing an unregistered gun.

Dahle Drowns, Not Senator James Ball

Fort Frances, Ont., July 28 (AP)—C. A. Dahle, Minnesota State Senator, drowned Tuesday near this northwestern Ontario town.

The similarity of names led to a report that former U. S. Senator Joseph H. Ball of Minnesota was the drowning victim. Ball, however, was at his summer home at Afton, Minn.

Dahle, drowned at Lake Kabetogama, 30 miles southeast here. Sheriff Adolph Johnson of Orr, Minn., identified the state legislator as the victim.

THE EYES HAVE IT

London, July 28 (AP)—The House of Commons was told today that 4,500,000 pairs of spectacles had been supplied free during the first year of Britain's socialized medical program.

New York, July 28 (AP)—Debate over whether private and church schools should get federal funds still swirled today in the wake of opposing statements by Francis Cardinal Spellman and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Two more officials sided with Mrs. Roosevelt in opposing federal aid to non-public schools. There were Dr. John K. Norton, Columbia university professor and official of the National Education Association, and Dr. John W. Behnken, president of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Support for Cardinal Spellman came from James A. Farley, prominent Catholic layman and former postmaster general under the late President Roosevelt, as he left yesterday for Europe.

Denies Bias

Farley took no specific stand on the federal aid issue, except to say he hoped congress would "clear up any differences." But he praised Cardinal Spellman as "a great prince of the church," and added:

"I am sure he (Cardinal Spellman) gave considerable thought and great consideration to the contents of his letter to Mrs. Roosevelt before he wrote it."

In his letter last week, the New York archbishop accused Mrs. Roosevelt of taking an "anti-Catholic" stand "unworthy of an American mother" in opposing federal aid to church schools.

Mrs. Roosevelt, replying yesterday, said she had no bias against any religion. She voiced anew her opposition to federal support of schools set up by various religious sects, and said she would continue to speak out for what she believes right.

Abstract Retreat

Dr. Norton, chairman of the NEA's educational policy commission, said in a speech at a Columbia education conference yesterday that granting public funds to denominational schools would be "the most abstract retreat in all our history."

He said some persons are demanding that the "price of federal aid to education" be the abolition of the American principle of separation of church and state and of the first amendment to the constitution.

(The first amendment says "congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion.")

Talmadge Still Runs The Show In Georgia

Legislature Accedes To Governor's Wishes

Atlanta, July 28 (AP)—There is little doubt today that Herman Talmadge still is the political kingpin of Georgia.

Some politicians said privately that until now without Gov. Talmadge's ability to act decisively and to maintain control of his followers has been one of the biggest political factors in the state.

It was the big "if" around which almost half-a-dozen candidates apparently were building gubernatorial hopes.

Yesterday Talmadge emerged triumphant from a special legislative session which voted new taxes—$20,500,000 worth.

The magic cry which gave Talmadge his tax program, almost as he wrote it originally, was "The governor wants this."

All this remains for the special session to do is to concur in a few amendments and approve an appropriations bill which gives the governor wide latitude in saying how the new revenues will be spent.

Last April 5, the people turned down additional taxes in a referendum. At the time of that referendum, Talmadge himself said he was opposed to imposition of new taxes without expressed public approval.

Cohen Henchman's Gun Wounds Fatal

Los Angeles, July 28 (AP)—Edward (Reddy) Herbert, henchman of gambler Mickey Cohen, died early today of shotgun wounds suffered July 20 at the hands of rival gangsters.

Herbert had been in a critical condition since the shooting. The slugs blasted his liver, spleen and kidneys. Cohen, a former movie bit actor and a state-appointed bodyguard for the gambling boss also was hit but is recovering.

Herbert had escaped 11 shots from gangsters only a month before as he was entering his apartment.

PERKINS MAN HURT BY TRUCK

Vehicle Rolls Over Joseph Vallier

Joseph Vallier, 32, of Rapid River, Route One, (Perkins) suffered a broken neck vertebra and is paralyzed from the chest down as a result of a freak truck mishap Wednesday afternoon.

Vallier is receiving treatment in St. Francis hospital. He and his two sons, James 14, and Gerald 12, were traveling along the Whitefish road when his logging truck developed distributor trouble about 2:30 p. m., yesterday, near Haymeadow brook. Vallier got underneath the truck to dry the distributor.

The truck started to roll, and Jackknifed Vallier beneath the front axle. The axle struck him in the back of the head. His sons ran in front of the truck and held it back, else, state police say, the back wheels also would have injured him.

The boys removed their father from beneath the truck, and one went to Rapid River to call an ambulance while the other remained with Vallier.

State police of Gladstone assisted.

SEVERE STORM IN WISCONSIN

Three Persons Killed In Milwaukee

Milwaukee, July 28 (AP)—A violent electrical storm ripped at eastern Wisconsin last night, killing three persons in Milwaukee and leaving numerous automobiles stranded in deep pools of water.

Two women and a man died on Milwaukee's north side when a high tension wire fell on their automobile. They were not immediately identified.

Two inches of rain flooded basements at Green Bay and Sheboygan within an hour of the time the downpour started. Lightning and wind tore down telephone and electric wires in both cities and fallen wires forced closing of a number of streets.

In Milwaukee, local floods and other damage were reported by hundreds of persons to police and newspapers. In some sections of the city, water was reported standing more than four feet deep in the streets. Several power lines were down.

"Rented the first day" said Smith.

SEVERE STORM IN WISCONSIN

Three Persons Killed In Milwaukee

Milwaukee, July 28 (AP)—A violent electrical storm ripped at eastern Wisconsin last night, killing three persons in Milwaukee and leaving numerous automobiles stranded in deep pools of water.

Two women and a man died on Milwaukee's north side when a high tension wire fell on their automobile. They were not immediately identified.

Two inches of rain flooded basements at Green Bay and Sheboygan within an hour of the time the downpour started. Lightning and wind tore down telephone and electric wires in both cities and fallen wires forced closing of a number of streets.

In Milwaukee, local floods and other damage were reported by hundreds of persons to police and newspapers. In some sections of the city, water was reported standing more than four feet deep in the streets. Several power lines were down.

"Rented the first day" said Smith.

Ward Employees Okeh Strike For General 15c Wage Increase

In an official vote supervised by the Michigan labor mediation board this morning, employees of the Montgomery Ward store in Escanaba approved strike action in their request for higher wages.

Under terms of the election, supervised by Henry G. Trembley, of Lansing, election supervisor for the state labor mediation board, 50 employees, by a vote of 33 yes, nine no, and five spoiled, three not voting, and five challenged, approved a strike within 30 days.

According to Al Mikso, regional organizer for the AFL union, a walkout is probable by next week if the company does not meet the employees' request for a wage increase of 15 cents an hour for all employees.

This proposal was made about two months ago and the company's counter-proposal called for an increase of $1 to $5.50 a week for only 10 employees, he said.

The company did not approve a general increase, officials pointed out this morning, but did approve a new job classification which would result in additional wages for a few employees.

Registered Holstein Sale Here Saturday

The sale of 56 head of registered Holstein cattle, surplus from the herds of Michigan state institutions, will go on the auction block at the fair grounds in Escanaba Saturday in the third annual sale of its kind in the Upper Peninsula.

Fifty-one of the animals are heifers and five are bulls, according to Alton B. Clark of the state department of agriculture, who is in charge of the sale. The auctioneer is C. B. Smith.

Arriving here yesterday to assist in preparations for the sale are Charles E. Figg, commissioner of agriculture, and G. S. McIntyre, deputy commissioner.

The cattle to be sold are now at U. P. State Fair grounds, where the sale will start at 1 p. m. Saturday.

Farmers in this territory who plan to attend the sale are invited to inspect the animals Friday afternoon or Saturday morning and also have the opportunity of studying the animals' pedigrees. This will prove valuable to prospective purchasers and will help guide them when the bidding starts.

The Holsteins come from herds at state branch prison, Marquette; Newberry State Hospital; and other state institutions in lower Michigan.

Delta Grain Crop Damaged By Storm

Heavy rains and wind yesterday afternoon beat whole fields of ripened grain to the ground in several sections of Delta county, causing some damage and creating many harvesting difficulties to the farmer, it was reported today by J. L. Heirman, county agricultural agent.

Heaviest damage to oats and barley, and some wheat and rye, was in the Rock and St. Nicholas area. There the grain was heaped so flat it may not be possible to pick it up with a combine. If a binder is used it will have to operate against the down-beaten stalks to pick them up.

The deluge of rain was so heavy in some places that heads of grain were knocked from the stalks, farmers reported.

In addition to the loss in grain there will be less straw harvested.

Dr. Cooperstock Examines 64 At Escanaba Clinic

Sixty-four persons received cardiac or pediatric examination yesterday at a clinic in the health center building in Escanaba conducted by Dr. M. Cooperstock of Marquette, pediatrician in charge of the crippled children's clinic.

It was described as one of the most successful clinics of its kind in Escanaba in several years.

Several persons assisted Dr. Cooperstock, including Miss Sylvia Peabody, cardiac consultant; Miss Eleanor McGarva, medical social worker; Miss Jessie Wadell, director of nurses of the crippled children's commission; and Miss Bernice Blodgett, crippled children's commission nurse in the Upper Peninsula, with headquarters in Marquette.

Herman Ellis, health educator for the crippled children's commission, made moving pictures illustrating the work being done under the cardiac program.

Members of the local Lay Health Committee, Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. L. Winling and Mrs. F. Weissert, were volunteer assistants.

Communists Make Advance in Human

Canton, China, July 28 (AP)—Red troops seized new areas of human province today. Nationalists conceded the Communists were astride the Canton-Hankow railroad between Changsha and Hengyang.

An official dispatch acknowledged loss of Chuchow, 25 miles south of Changsha, capital of Hunan and a central China strongpoint. In taking the rail town, the Reds not only severed Nationalist communications between Changsha and Hengyang but gained control of the entire Chekiang railroad.

Chuchow is the junction of the two railroads 315 miles north of the refugee Nationalist headquarters in Canton—which the Communist high command has ordered captured by Aug. 15.

Jake Bink, picnic chairman, said today. The picnic will begin at noon.

DEATH CLAIMS GROOS PIONEER

Rites For James Bichler Saturday Morning

James Bichler, 72, pioneer resident of Groos, died yesterday at St. Francis hospital. He had been in failing health for six months prior to his death which was caused by a heart attack.

Born in Luxemburg in 1877, he came to this country sixty-nine years ago and settled in Groos where he remained for the rest of his life. He was a partner in the Bichler Brothers company, stone and gravel producers, since its inception in 1900. Mr. Bichler never married. He is survived by three brothers, John of Groos, Harry of Escanaba and Bert of Thessalon, Ontario, Canada. Two brothers, Nicholas and Peter, and a sister, Mrs. R. E. Allingham preceded him in death.

He was a member of St. Anthony's Catholic church at Wells. The body is at the Alto funeral home. Funeral services will be held at St. Anthony's church Saturday morning at 9 with Rev. Fr. Ralph Sterbenz officiating. Burial will be at Holy Cross cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning Friday afternoon.

Rent Control Act Will Be Reviewed

Chicago, July 28 (AP)—The way was paved today for a ruling by the U. S. supreme court on the constitutionality of the National Rent Control Act.

Federal Judge Walter J. Labuy, after denying a government motion to dismiss a suit challenging the constitutionality of the law yesterday, set Sept. 12 for hearing of a suit by a three-judge panel. His decision to present the case to a three-judge panel will open the way for a direct review of the ruling by the U. S. supreme court.

Earlier this week Federal Judge Elwyn R. Shaw ruled the 1949 rent law unconstitutional on the ground that the act's local option clause illegally delegates the war powers of congress to states and municipalities.

Polio Cases Running Way Ahead Of 2nd Worst Year In U.S.

270 In Michigan
Nearly two-thirds of the nation's polio was centered in nine states. The leaders were Texas, 1,123; California 708; Arkansas 488; Oklahoma 440; New York 353; Michigan 306; Missouri 302; Minnesota 286 and Illinois 259.

Oklahoma health authorities said more than half of the state's 440 cases already have recovered. They said they had enough equipment to take care of patients but not enough trained personnel.

New York City, which has had 14 polio deaths since July 1, issued an emergency call for nurses.

Health Commissioner Harry S. Mustard called the city's 247 cases a "mild epidemic." The Red Cross said Arkansas was one of the hardest hit states in the nation. Most of the victims were stricken during May, June and July.

Iowa authorities reported 124 polio cases so far this year as against 118 at the same time in 1948—the state's record year.

Texas health directors said the state "has had more polio this year than ever before in its history." There were 67 polio deaths during the first six months of this year.

North Dakota officials reported no epidemic but said the state's 67 cases and four deaths are the highest on record for the date.

Maryland authorities said its present status of 15 cases and two deaths was normal but forecast "a bad month and a half ahead."

At Springfield, Ill., all children under 16 were quarantined and the public swimming pool was closed for the rest of the season after 17 polio cases and two deaths struck the city this month. The health department has predicted more than 2,200 cases for this year, against 1,100 last year.

A Muncie, Ind., manufacturer was converting alcohol barrels into "iron lungs" for the hospital there and one was already in use.

MAY REOPEN HOSPITAL
Grand Rapids, July 28 (AP)—Plans for reopening isolation hospital here for exclusive treatment of West Michigan poliomyelitis patients were being considered today.

Ernest L. Bates, Michigan representative for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis said the move was likely in event three regular hospitals are unable to cope with the influx of patients.

A total of 47 polio patients from western Michigan have been brought here since June 4.

Bates said that if isolation hospital is reopened, an appeal will be made to national headquarters for additional nurses. The hospital was last used during a similar epidemic in 1946.

Petition Filed For Airmail In U. P.

THE Michigan aeronautics board is on the right track in its pleadings with the Civil Aeronautics administration to either force Wisconsin Central Airlines to exercise its airmail franchise in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan or license Nationwide Airlines of Detroit to do it.

Wisconsin Central has been sitting tight on its airline franchise to Northern Michigan, denying airmail service to which the Upper Peninsula is entitled. Nationwide Airlines, on the other hand, is operating reliable, daily service from Detroit to Upper Michigan points, even though it lacks a CAA franchise and an airmail contract.

While Wisconsin Central refuses to extend air service to Northern Michigan on a plea that the company lacks sufficient capital to do so, the airline has petitioned the CAA for additional routes in Iowa and other points.

Nationwide Airlines has earned the right to an airmail contract to serve the Upper Peninsula. We sincerely hope that the CAA lends a sympathetic ear to the pleadings of the state aeronautics board.

New City Beach Is Near Reality

BARRING unforeseen developments, Escanaba's new municipal beach at Ludington park, complete with modern beach house facilities, will be ready for use next summer. Assurance of this was given to the city recreation board Tuesday night.

Completion of sandfill operations on the beach is scheduled for this summer. The sand sucker is operating efficiently and the island, where the new beach will be located, is up to grade most of the area. The job will be completed within the remaining weeks of the summer and early fall.

Several plans for the new beach house have been drawn and are being studied by the recreation board, which will make a recommendation to the city council within the next month. The schedule now provides that preliminary work on the beach house be started this fall, perhaps including much of the concrete work. Actual construction of the building will be resumed early next spring so that the building and its facilities will be ready for the summer season in 1950.

Eventually the new beach will be delightfully landscaped, trees, shrubs, etc., planted and picnic areas laid out.

The beach house will be approximately 90 feet by 40 feet in dimensions, with adequate dressing facilities, showers, etc., as well as concession equipment. The exterior of the building will be attractive.

Escanabans have waited patiently for this much needed civic improvement and it is encouraging to know that the public's patience is now about to be rewarded.

Greyhound Drivers Reject New Offer

THE employees of the Northland Greyhound Bus Lines, which serves Upper Michigan and Wisconsin and six other mid-western states, have rejected a compromise offer aimed at ending the 90 day strike. Rejection of the settlement proposal means that the strike will continue and the Upper Peninsula, which has been without bus service during the busy tourist season, will continue to suffer the lack of this important transportation service.

Frankly, we are unfamiliar with all of the grievances presented by the Greyhound employees and the righteousness of their cause, or lack of it. However, the drivers and maintenance workers were offered an improved contract, providing for a rate increase based upon the recommendation of a study group. They rejected this plan and called the strike. Now they have rejected a new proposal, the terms of which have not been announced but obviously must have included some additional concessions by the company.

One thing is certain. The Greyhound employees stand to lose plenty by their stubborn refusal to end the strike. It is unlikely that they can extract a better contract if the strike should continue past the summer season, the busy period for bus patronage. Furthermore, the unshaky economic conditions would indicate that as time goes on, industry in general will strengthen its resistance to demands for higher wage contracts in the face of reduced income.

The public reaction to the Greyhound strike developments is a widening belief that the bus drivers and maintenance men are getting some bad advice from some source, probably from their union leaders.

How About The 'Longest Trial'

A reporter noted that a certain woman who testified in the New York trial of 11 Communist leaders was the "tallest witness" yet to appear on the stand.

It's that kind of a case. Inevitably, one of these days there'll be a report on the "shortest witness" and then perhaps "the first witness with a goatee," and so on.

The trial has run six months now and forecasts are for another half year. So it wouldn't be too upsetting if some enterprising merchant should offer a handsome door prize to the first spectator through the courtroom portals on the 250th day of the proceedings.

Know How To 'Get Out The Vote'

ITALY'S lawmakers went slightly out of bounds in registering formally their enthusiasm for the Atlantic Pact. Only 469 members of the Chamber of Deputies voted but 546 ballots were cast in the first vote.

Somebody over there apparently has been getting advice from kinkfolk over here who are familiar with our big city election methods.

Or maybe the Italians heard about the caucus of Texas Democrats at the 1944 national convention in Chicago. After one important poll, the delegation leader announced:

"We'll have to vote again. And this time I must ask that only delegates and alternates participate in the balloting."

Other Editorial Comments

THE DIVINING ROD

The countryman wishes to say as he starts this controversial subject that he does not pretend to know the exact answer. Some claim the act is a fake; some insist it is a fact. Water witching does not work for some people; it seems to work for others. All one can do is describe what he has seen without passing arbitrary judgment. It is a fact that water witching or dowsing goes far back in man's written records. The Romans' use of sticks in described by Cicero and Tacitus; Munster mentions the divining rod in his "Cosmography" published in the early 16th century. It was used in the Hart mountains, in Wales and in England. Early pioneers brought the practice to America. Scientists have closely studied the phenomenon; Webster's dictionary says a water witch "locates" water, not tries to locate. The Brissanica is forthright; it says "the art of using a divining rod."

It was a dark, lowering August day years ago. There were rumbles of distant thunder and occasional forks of jagged lightning. A group of farmers and boys were gathered in a field waiting for Old Mose, the water witch. As he came plodding up the road, the laughter and talk died away. It was almost like a Biblical scene in its prosaic, elemental simplicity. The farmer showed Mose where he would like to dig a well. Without a word the old man in his tattered clothes, tobacco-stained beard and long hair went at his task. He held the pronged stick in front of his chest, the point slightly up. Back and forth he went slowly, methodically. Moment by moment the tension increased. You could hear men's hard breaths in the tense silence, broken only by distant thunder. Suddenly the point of the stick started downward. Old Mose hesitatingly took a few more steps. One could almost feel him resisting the pull. The bark actually slipped on his willow wand. Then he stopped. Beads of sweat glistened on his face and forehead. He lifted an arm and rubbed it across his eyes. "Dig here," he said to the farmer. "There's water about 12 feet." And he was right. At a little more than that depth, there was a good vein. What is the magic power? Is there a realm of sub-conscious perception in certain human beings, similar to the instinct of birds and animals? Each year the arguments flare anew. Perhaps in time, when we learn more about atomic power and superpowers, we shall learn the answer to this centuries-old mystery.—By Hadyn Pearson.

Take My Word For It . . . Frank Colby

LET'S TALK ABOUT THE WORD "MELEE"

Melee is a French loan word meaning "an affray; a confused general hand-to-hand fight." Example: He was badly injured in the melee.

Now if you were to read the foregoing sentence aloud, how would you pronounce the word melee? You'd say MEE-lee, wouldn't you? Of course you would, for MEE-lee is the naturalized Anglicized pronunciation of the word, and it is the pronunciation that nearly everyone uses.

But you won't find the pronunciation MEE-lee in any American dictionary thus far published! The dictionaries offer three choices: MAY-lay; may-LAY; MELL-ay, none of which suggests the word melee.

The dictionaries' first choice, MAY-lay, does suggest the adjective and noun May-lay. Using the MAY-lay pronunciation, read the sentence aloud again, and you will be making the surprising statement that "He was badly injured in the Malay!"

Now it is true that the French pronunciation of melee is: meh-LAY. But melee has been considered an English word for centuries, as have tens of thousands of other French loan words which are never given the French pronunciation.

The dictionaries' refusal to recognize the Standard American pronunciation MEE-lee is unrealistic in the extreme. They cannot advance a single sound reason why MEE-lee is not a perfectly logical and legitimate pronunciation.

Religious Feud Is Out In Open

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—As history has shown repeatedly, the fires of religious conflict, once lighted, are difficult or impossible to check. Disquieting signs of hostility between Protestants and Roman Catholics have been multiplying since the end of the war until they constitute today a clear and present danger.

Cardinal Spellman's attack on Mrs. Roosevelt will certainly not restrain what threatens to become an open feud with increasingly unhappy manifestations. It is likely to have quite the opposite effect.

In this country where so many minorities live side by side tolerance is essential to peaceful existence. If the spirit of live-and-let-live is supplanted by mutual hatred and reprisal, then no minority will be able to feel secure.

The immediate cause of the present strife is the aid-to-education bill in the house. A clause in the bill approved by a house committee would limit federal aid to public schools. This has led many Catholics to believe that unfair discrimination is intended.

SOLUTION POSSIBLE

A careful examination of all the circumstances should disabuse any fair-minded person of this belief. But the controversy seems to have gone beyond that issue to a point of bitterness calling for a compromise agreed to by all sides.

A reasonable solution can still be found. Step No. 1 is for the house to pass the proposed federal child health bill. This provides $35,000,000 to be allocated to the states on the basis of the number of children attending private and parochial as well as public schools. Rep. Graham A. Barden of North Carolina, whose education bill is under Catholic attack because it is limited to public schools, says he is for the health measure. Thereby, according to those working to effect a compromise, he gives proof that he has no religious prejudices but is basing his stand on aid to education on legal and constitutional grounds.

This would open the way for step No. 2. That is passage by the house of the $300,000,000 aid-to-education bill already approved in the senate.

The senate bill allows the separate states to determine whether the federal aid goes to all schools or whether it is to be restricted to public schools. Thus, in some states the law provides that money raised by state taxes shall go to provide school buses for children attending parochial and public schools.

This is a recognition of the differing pattern in the different states. In, say, Louisiana or Rhode Island the proportion of children attending parochial schools is far larger than in, say, Vermont or Iowa. It would be unfair, so the argument for the compromise goes, to impose a federal dictum that would cut across these differing patterns.

COMPROMISE MAIN HOPE

Quite apart from theoretical argument, the actual fact is that he only hope for desperately needed federal aid to the schools is through the compromise approach adopted in the senate. And if the current conflict continues to boil up, even that chance is slim.

One unhappy aspect of the present controversy is that it tends to emphasize the separateness of minority groups. It seems to confirm the pessimistic view that the clash of minorities, jealous of special rights and special status, would not yield to the "melting pot" but would grow sharper and more uncompromising.

In choosing a justice for the supreme court to succeed the late Frank Murphy, President Truman confronts this problem. While the statement has been made that the president would inevitably nominate a Catholic to succeed Murphy, who in turn succeeded Justice Pierce Butler, a Catholic, that is not at this moment a foregone conclusion.

The president is said to be troubled by the concept that a seat on the court should be assumed to belong to one or the other minority, thus again underscoring the separateness of interests rather than the common citizenship of all Americans. Letters to the president from Catholics have expressed this same point of view since Justice Murphy's death.

In many ways Justice Murphy in his career was a living refutation of the theory of separateness and special status. He was one of the radicals on the court, repeatedly championing unpopular beliefs. This suggests what seems to me to be the reality—that there is far greater diversity of opinion within the minorities than we are ordinarily led to believe. And this would, in turn, seem to make possible a workable compromise on this most difficult issue of aid to education.

When my forthcoming Pronouncing Dictionary is published, you will find that the recommended pronunciation of melee is: MEE-lee.

A similar word is the name Pelee, a mountain volcano in the West Indies. All dictionaries known to me show the French pronunciation puh-LAY. Not one dictionary even mentions the prevailing American pronunciation PEE-lee.

Inertia is the occupational disease of the dictionaries. To use a popular expression, they hate to star their stumps and discard the outmoded entries that clutter up their pages. This column believes in facing the facts of our great language realistically. As Mark Twain observed: "Loyalty to petrified opinion never yet broke a chain or freed a man's soul."

Whatta Life!

Good Evening By Clint Dunathan

MURDER—There is a growing epidemic of causeless killings by whimsical murderers who are unable to account for their crimes. "I don't know why I did it," confess the killers.

Some of them are gay and some are repentant after the murder, but that does little to bring life back to the dead. Authorities searching for the motive are often unable to find one and eventually set it down for the record as attempted robbery.

This may appear logical to a person of sound mind, since the murderers have the habit of lifting their victim's wallet after they drop the victim.

THE BLACKOUT—Women who kill have adopted as standard procedure the defense that "everything went black" just before they pulled the trigger.

Their stories follow a familiar pattern. She has been insulted. Her life was threatened by the deceased. Either he pulled a gun or she pulled a gun (she can't remember which) but she is certain there "was a struggle."

"The struggle for the gun" has become a classic. The gun barrel is pointing directly at her. She grabs the gun in self-defense. Somehow—and quite accidentally—the trigger is pulled and the gun discharges. Does the bullet hit the woman, at whom it is pointed? No. It takes a circuitous route and doubles back to drill the man through the gizzard.

Seldom does the woman accused of murder remember seeing the body slump to the floor. "Everything went black," she sobs, although why she should blackout so conveniently is difficult to determine, since from the time the gun went non she is reasonably safe from dishonor—or what was once called "a fate worse than death."

INSANITY—The man or woman who kills in a fit of passion has a better chance of acquittal than the individual who is quite calm about the matter.

Juries are impressed by the defense pleading that the murderer "did not know what he was doing" at the time of the crime. If the defendant is cooperative he will help to establish the appearance of instability by "showing flashes of ungovernable temper," as the newspaper reporters say. Between tempers he will exhibit a morose indifference, indicating that his personality—if not split—is at least badly cracked.

LOVE, LOVE, LOVE—In other murder cases the defendant (man or woman) is often pictured as the victim of love, the grand passion, an all-consuming attachment that blinds them to justice and the consequences of crime.

These weak sisters, male or female, who do murder when so bid by the object of their deathless affection, have one common peculiarity. Discovered and brought to trial for their crime they immediately accuse their love partner. Consistency and faithfulness are not among their virtues. They are willing to kill someone else in the name of love, but they are unwilling to die for it themselves.

PREMEDITATED—One of the worst ways to do murder (not that there are any good ones) is to plan it in advance. Premeditated murder is frowned upon and is generally hard to defend, even by the best counsel. Planning a murder should be done quietly and without leaving any diagrams in your notebook or rings on the calendar. But if you do get caught in such a situation, do as the others do—claim self-defense. It may not hold up, but then you never can tell. At least the victim won't be around to testify against you.

IT DOESN'T PAY—Unless you are a writer there are probably easier ways to obtain money than to bump somebody off. Robbery as a motive for crime is not considered a defense, although you may have an extravagant wife, payments due on a car, and a dozen children.

Juries generally consider that taxpayers are supporting enough social agencies to prevent anyone from murder and robbery so they will not have to go hungry. Besides, the average take in such cases is ridiculously small. According to recent accounts, murder victims seldom carry more than 30 cents, a couple of souvenir 100,000 yen notes and a fishing license, not transferable.

Murderers who are caught with the goods on them will do well to follow the line of popular complaint in crime circles. Simply put on a blank expression and tell the police sergeant, "It just happened on the spur of the moment. Everything went black. I did it—but I don't know why."

Dress Up The Band

Dear Editor:

I am another one of the thousands who noticed how terrible our own Esc-City Band looked in the parade recently during the Legion convention. I should think they would have noticed themselves and felt too ashamed to march along after the other bands in beautiful clean colorful uniforms, one after the other, but Escanaba was really crummy. At least those who had uniforms could have had them cleaned and pressed and looked a little more respectable. Whoever is responsible for this should certainly not let this happen again.

How About The Fans?

Dear Editor:

At the recent All-Star softball games at Memorial Field, one of the things that are for the benefit of the players, the thought struck me that it is about time the local softball management began to think about the fans' benefit.

The players put on some good ball games on an excellent playing field, but it seems that every obstacle possible confronts the fan to make it difficult for him to watch the game. In the first place, the best area in the park is taken up by the press box, snugly looking thing that occupies about twenty feet directly behind home plate, which should be the best seating area in any ball park.

Secondly, the pitifully inadequate and uncomfortable bleachers are strung behind a barricade of fencing and posts that seems to have been designed more as an obstacle than as protection from batted balls. Because of the six and eight inch posts obstructing the view, there is not a single seat that allows the fan full vision. Depending upon where you sit, you miss seeing at least one of the players when a ball is hit to the infield. A recent game I attended was like watching a phantom team, as I didn't see the shortstop all night and got only glimpses of the third baseman's left leg. Except for the fact that you pay to get in, it's like watching the game through a knot hole.

It would seem that there should be ways to finance an improvement program of adequate seating. It should pay for itself by attracting more fans, as certainly more people will attend the games if they know they don't have to sit in their cars way out in the field in order to see all the players at one time. The expense of replacing that tank barricade with fencing such as it is used on tennis courts should not be great. The association could give some thought also to erecting permanent stands in the best location, right behind home plate, and moving the announcer's booth to the top of the stand out of the way of the spectators. Such an expense could be amortized through a small extra seating charge. In any ball park in the country you pay extra for the best seats. Why not use the proceeds to make it more comfortable for the fans?

Escanaba has a good softball field, and some good ball clubs. Now it's time somebody gave some thought to the customers who pay for it.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—One partial by-product of Cardinal Spellman's attack on Mrs. Roosevelt is a new political alignment which may reshape the politics of the entire nation. It may spell the difference between the election of a Democratic and Republican president in 1952, and a Republican and Democratic congress in 1950.

To understand what is happening, you have to remember that for the past two decades there has been a close political alliance between Catholics and Jews in New York City, and in many other big industrial cities, such as Boston and Philadelphia.

The combination of Catholics and Jews in New York consistently carried the state for Roosevelt, and for Al Smith before him. It was an almost unbeatable combination.

However, Democratic political leaders are now privately and mournfully predicting that the alliance is almost certain to fall apart. They base this upon two factors.

One, is the much-publicized attack on Mrs. Roosevelt by Cardinal Spellman, which has focused nation-wide attention on religious issues.

Two, is the much-less publicized opposition of Cardinal Spellman to ex-Governor Herbert Lehman, who had hoped to be the first Jew in history to be elected to the United States senate.

CARDINAL OPPOSES LEHMAN

Lehman, who served as governor of New York longer than any other man, was considered a sure winner for the senate seat of ex-Senator Bob Wagner. As governor, he had received the support of all religious groups. However, the cardinal and Lehman got into an argument last year over the banning of The Nation, a magazine, from New York public school libraries because The Nation had published a series of articles by Paul Blanshard critical of the Catholic church.

Lehman took the position at that time that, since the New York public schools are attended by Protestants and Jews as well as Catholics, their reading material should not be fixed by Catholics alone. Lehman felt that the Catholic church had every right to set the reading material in its own parochial schools, but not in public schools which are supported by the taxpayers.

Cardinal Spellman, however, vigorously disagreed with Lehman and wrote him a sharp personal letter.

Now that Lehman is available for the senate, he has received word from Catholic leaders that, because of his stand on the censorship of the nation, he would have definite church opposition. Naturally this would make it difficult, if not impossible, for him to win. This has been the chief reason why the ex-governor has delayed in announcing his candidacy.

This Catholic opposition to Lehman, coupled with the Cardinal's criticism of Mrs. Roosevelt, who has always had strong Jewish support, is why Democratic leaders are so worried over continuation of the Jewish-Catholic political alliance in the big eastern cities.

FDR, JR., TALKED WITH CARDINAL

In the light of Cardinal Spellman's criticism of Mrs. Roosevelt, it is interesting to recall a conference which took place before the Cardinal and her son before young Franklin ran for congress last spring.

FDR, Jr., called on the cardinal in order to inform him that his wife was planning to sue for divorce. Young Franklin is an Episcopalian, but he called on the Catholic prelate because of the fact that about 25 percent of the voters in the 20th New York district are Catholic and he wanted their support in his congressional race.

Roosevelt made it clear that he did not want the divorce, but that his wife, the former Ethel du Pont, insisted on it. Cardinal Spellman deplored the divorce, but advised that if Mrs. Roosevelt, Jr., demanded it, then FDR, Jr., should refrain from marrying again.

The cardinal took no part in Roosevelt's subsequent congressional race, which he won by a substantial majority.

Note—About 60 per cent of the voters in Roosevelt's district are Jewish, with 25 per cent Catholic. He drew support from both groups.

MCCARRAN'S PERSONAL IMMIGRANTS

Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada, whose name means "keep out" to Europe's homeless refugees, actually begged the senate the other day to admit 250 more people into this country.

It turned out, however, that he only wanted sheepherders to tend flocks in the west. McCarran wanted to import them, not from displaced-person camps, but from the Pyrenees Mountains along the Franco-Spanish border.

This was a curious request coming from McCarran who, alone, stands in the way of 400,000 displaced persons (including 5,000 sheepherders) who wish to start a new life in the United States. As chairman of the senate judiciary committee, he has been able to block a bill rectifying the 80th congress' D. P. act which discriminated against Jews and Catholics.

Thus, senators were a little baffled at the spectacle of the gentleman from Nevada pleading to raise the immigration bars. In fact, he almost got down on his knees.

"There is no more important bill on the calendar than this one," begged McCarran. Fervently, he described the plight of the west's neglected sheep and the need for sheepherders from abroad.

But Sen. Robert Hendrickson, New Jersey Republican, gave McCarran a taste of his own medicine.

"As I understand," remarked Hendrickson slyly, "there are in some of the displaced-persons camps over 5,000 sheepherders."

He blocked the bill.

A dog is a friend of man unless it's the wife who bought it.

Michigan Happenings In Washington

By ESTHER TUFTY

Few issues in the 81st Congress have called forth as many letters from Michigan voters as federal aid to education.

And probably the flow will increase with Cardinal Spellman's criticism of Mrs. Roosevelt for writing that public funds should not be used for support of sectarian schools. Most of the mail is "against" and the pressure is such that certainly if the bill passes at all (which is doubtful) some compromise must be found.

On that the author of the bill, Congressman Graham Barden of North Carolina says: "I can compromise words, figures, phrases, even money, but on the principle of federal tax money going to private schools, I don't believe the government, the Supreme Court or I can compromise."

The crux is where to draw the line in the use of federal funds for schools.

The Senate would permit the use of federal funds for nonsectarian text-books and bus service for children attending parochial schools if such a policy is sanctioned by state law.

The Congressman opposes this but is willing to go along with another compromise which calls for 25 million dollars health-aid fund for children in both parochial and public schools before the education bill is brought to a vote.

One Michigan congressman (who doesn't want to be quoted) said as he scanned thru a pile of "against" letters: "Bus service and non-sectarian textbooks are a little closer to education than health services, but at least they are in the twilight zone and the Supreme Court has said that such costs do not encroach upon the separation of church and state."

Meanwhile, the mail keeps pouring in. Congressman Charles Potter received 3200 letters in a two week period. Some say the letters come from one parish or city but a survey of those addressed to Ray Woodruff, of Bay City, indicated his came "from all over the 10th district."

The Detroit congressmen's letters are "coming in so fast we can't read them all yet," said Congressman John Dingell.

Little Finland, the only country that never missed paying installments on its World War I debt to the United States, may be rewarded by Congress for faithfully abiding by its commitment.

BIRDS EYE TO MAKE REPAIRS

Workers Given Vacation With Pay

The Birds Eye Veneer company will close its plant the first two weeks of August for the annual vacation and equipment repairs, Noel Lee, general manager, announced today.

During the shutdown, the company will install a half-rounding machine for cutting curly birch and other figured woods. This is the first machine of its type installed in a veneer mill in this region.

Employees of the Birds Eye Veneer company have been granted vacations with pay. Checks totaling $24,629.31 will be given 238 workers for the vacation period.

The veneer business remains steady, but there is a shortage of good veneer logs, Mr. Lee said. Most of the company's requirements are supplied by Upper Michigan and Canada. Red and white oak logs are procured in Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa.

FAMILY KEEPS CYMBAL SECRET

Uses Special Process In Making Instrument

By HAL BOYLE
New York, (AP)—The Aedis Zildjian family has held a secret for 326 years.

"We don't tell it to the women," said Zildjian. "The father tells it only to his eldest son, and in time he tells it to his eldest son. In this way we keep the secret."

The secret is how to make cymbals. That doesn't sound like much of a secret—but the cymbal isn't as simple as it sounds. You don't have to age a saxophone. You do a cymbal—it has to be mellowed like a good wine.

These musical noise-makers are as old as the Bible, but the Zildjian family has been manufacturing them only since 1623. It was in that year that the first Aedis Zildjian, a Constantinople alchemist, discovered a secret process for making an ideal cymbal metal from an alloy of tin, copper and silver.

Through the centuries the family developed almost a world monopoly in the manufacture of cymbals. They still dominate it.

"It is easy to analyze the alloy we use," says Aedis Zildjian. "But no one can put it together—and some of the biggest metal companies in the country have tried."

Zildjian, a 59-year-old Armenian who came to this country in 1909, has done more than any other single man to make the musical world cymbal-minded.

"When I started, the bands only used one kind of cymbal—a heavy one," he said. "Now we have 171 models in different weights and sizes."

His 12-man factory at Quincy, Mass., now turns out thousands of cymbals yearly. The work is all done by hand, and it takes 45 days to turn the rude metal ingots into sounding brass.

"It isn't easy to hammer cymbals," said Zildjian. "It takes a man at least six years to become skillful."

The cymbals then are stored in vaults anywhere from six months to 20 years until each reaches its proper resonance. Zildjian now has 40,000 in the process of aging.

"And they have 40,000 different tones," he said. "Find two that are alike and I'll give you $1,000—and the cymbals, too. I've never heard two that sounded exactly alike."

It is this variance in tone that accounts for the volume of the cymbal business. Professional drummers collect them like postage stamps. A cymbalist for Toscanini has three chests full—about 200," said Zildjian. "Jazz drum-

Those who are in doubt about anything concerning social security, will be able to present their questions to Mr. Johnson. The appearance of Mr. Johnson is being arranged by the Nahma Lions club. Playmates of Mary Lynn Roddy attended her birthday party at hers used to use only one cymbal. Now they use six or seven." Zildjian last year also began to manufacture gongs, and says he is the first man outside China to do so. It took him six months to make the first one. Now he is turning them out in 27 weights and sizes.

How long does a cymbal last?
"A hot drummer like Gene Krupa wears out a cymbal in two months," said Zildjian. "In Guy Lombardo's band, which plays softer music, a cymbal is good for at least two years."

"But in the Metropolitan Opera orchestra the cymbalist only goes 'crash, crash, kerplunk' maybe three times a night. His cymbals ought to last forever."

How do you like the layout of your A&P store?

Planning a super market is like putting together a jigsaw puzzle. All departments—dairy, produce, meat, baked good, coffee, groceries—must be fitted together in a way that will assure you of convenient, efficient shopping.

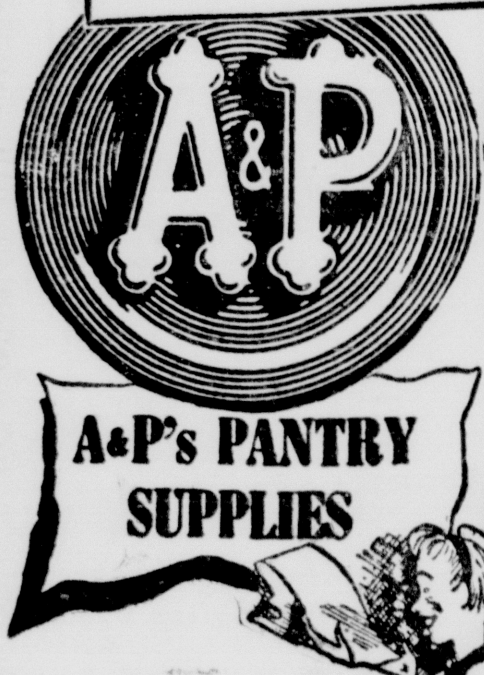

We try to avoid narrow or cluttered aisles, dark corners, hard-to-reach shelves and jammed up check-out stands.

Are we succeeding in your A&P? Can you locate foods you want easily? Is there good light and ample room for comfortable shopping?

If not, please let us know. We will appreciate any suggestions you may have that will help make your A&P a better place to shop.

He shall investigate the ability of the applicant to operate the proposed taxicab business in the best public interest, and shall also investigate whether public convenience and necessity require the operation of the taxicab. The City Manager then shall present a report of said investigation, together with his recommendations, to the City Council. The City Council shall determine whether a certificate of license should be issued, and if issued, shall be provided for in Chapter VI, Section 601, and whether, on the basis of the City Manager's report, a license should be granted. The City Clerk shall be notified of the decision of the Council, and, if such decision is that the license should be granted, the City Clerk shall issue such license upon payment of the prescribed fee.

SECTION 305.1. APPEAL. Any licensee aggrieved by any ruling or decision of the Chief of Police may appeal by petition to the City Council within ten days from the date of revocation or suspension. SECTION 402. INSPECTION. The Chief of Police shall maintain a constant vigilance over all taxicabs to see that they are maintained in good running condition for public use and that all equipment is such as to insure the safe transport of passengers. (c) Whether or not such applicant has at any time within five years prior to the date of such application been convicted of, or pleaded guilty to, any felony, crime or misdemeanor, and, if so, the date, nature of the offense, and the Court in which such charge was made, conviction was obtained, or plea of guilty entered.

(d) Whether any Chauffeur's License or Operator's Permit issued to him has ever been suspended or revoked, and, if so, for what cause.

(e) Such other information as the City Council may in its discretion require.

SECTION 503. PHYSICAL EXAMINATION. Each applicant for a Driver's Permit shall, at his own expense, be required to submit to a medical examination by a duly licensed physician of his own choosing, and the results of such examination shall be reduced to writing by such physician on a form to be provided by the City. Such form, completely filled out and signed by the examining physician, shall be attached to the application for a Driver's Permit before the same shall be received by the City Clerk.

SECTION 504. CONDITIONS OF ISSUANCE. Upon the filing of an application for a Driver's Permit, the City Clerk shall transmit the same to the Chief of Police who shall cause an investigation to be made of the character and fitness of such applicant. If, in the opinion of the Chief of Police, the applicant is a proper person to receive a Driver's Permit, he shall approve the issuance thereof, and shall take the fingerprints of the applicant.

SECTION 504.1. AGE, CHARACTER, AND HEALTH. No such permit shall be issued to any person who has not attained the age of twenty-one (21) years or who has been within the preceding twelve (12) months convicted of any violation of the laws of the United States or the laws of the State of Michigan, or who has three times been convicted of a misdemeanor within said period, or who is addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors or narcotics, or who is not a person of good moral character, or who is not sufficiently sound in mind and body to safely operate a taxicab.

SECTION 505. BADGE. If the application for a Driver's Permit is approved by the Chief of Police, he shall return the application together with his approval endorsed thereon, to the City Clerk, who shall issue to the applicant a Driver's Permit and in addition thereto, a metal badge in such form or style as the Chief of Police may from time to time prescribe with the driver's number prominently displayed thereon. Such badge shall be worn in a plainly visible position on the driver's outer garments or cap at all times when he is engaged in driving a taxicab.

SECTION 506. DRIVER'S PERMIT FEES. The following fees shall be paid for each Driver's Permit and renewal thereof:

It shall be unlawful for any person holding a Driver's Permit to transfer, or attempt to transfer, such Driver's Permit, or any badge or card issued hereunder, to any other person; and it shall be unlawful for any person holding such Driver's Permit to knowingly permit any other person to have the same or the badge or card issued to any other person.

SECTION 508. REVOCATION. The Chief of Police shall have power to revoke any Driver's Permit issued under the terms hereof in the following cases:

(a) In the event the holder thereof shall be convicted of or plead guilty of any violation of this ordinance or of the Traffic Ordinance of the City of Escanaba or of any Federal or State or penal law of the State of Michigan, whether in relation to the operation of motor vehicles or otherwise.

(b) In the event that the holder thereof shall be involved in any accident causing injury to or death of any person, or injury to or destruction of any property.

(c) Whenever, in the opinion of the Chief of Police, the holder thereof shall, by his conduct, demonstrate that the best interests of the public require that his Driver's Permit be revoked.

(d) The action of the Chief of Police in revoking a Driver's Permit shall be final, unless the licensee files with the City Clerk a written notice of appeal within ten days from such revocation. Such appeal shall be brought on for hearing at the next regular meeting of the City Council, but may then be publicly adjourned by the City Council to such other time or place as it may deem necessary or convenient. The decision of the City Council shall be final and conclusive.

SECTION 509. EXPIRATION. Any Driver's Permit issued hereunder shall expire on December 31st following the issuance thereof.

SECTION 510. RENEWAL. The City Clerk may renew Driver's Permits from year to year. A driver applying for a renewal of his Driver's Permit shall make application therefor on a form furnished by the City, and shall file the same with the City Clerk, who shall transmit it to the Chief of Police who shall make an investigation, and if he is satisfied that the applicant's Driver's Permit should be renewed, he shall endorse his approval upon such application and return it to the Clerk, who shall issue the renewal. PROVIDED that not more than two such renewals shall be granted without an additional physical examination by a duly licensed physician.

CHAPTER VI NECESSITY AND CONVENIENCE

SECTION 601. NECESSITY AND CONVENIENCE. No license shall be granted until the person applying for such license shall have secured the approval of the City Council, a certificate certifying that public convenience and necessity require the operation of the taxicab. In determining such public convenience and necessity the City Council shall consider the number of taxicabs then operating in the City of Escanaba and whether the demands of the public require additional taxicab service; the financial responsibility of the applicant; the number, type, and equipment of those taxicabs for which licenses are asked; the traffic conditions in the City of Escanaba; whether the additional taxicab service will result in a greater hazard to the public and such other relevant facts as the City Council may deem advisable or necessary. The City Council shall not refuse to renew an existing license merely on the ground of lack of convenience or necessity. Any law licensee, upon the approval of the City Council, may transfer the ownership of his taxicab or taxicabs to another licensed owner. Upon the furnishing of evidence that a licensed taxicab is no longer to be used as such, the City Council may authorize the City Clerk to transfer the license for use on another taxicab.

SECTION 602. CRUISING PROHIBITED. No driver shall cruise in search of passengers at any time, and whenever a taxicab is unoccupied, the driver either shall proceed at once by the most direct route to the taxicab garage or stand customarily occupied by such taxicab, or shall park his taxicab at any lawful parking place, except such place as is regularly used as a city bus stop.

SECTION 603. DRINKING ON DUTY PROHIBITED. No taxicab driver shall drink beer, wine, spirits or other alcoholic beverages while on duty.

CHAPTER IX RATES OF FARE

SECTION 901. RATES OF FARE. It shall be illegal for any owner of any taxicab business, or any driver of any taxicab operating within the City of Escanaba, to deviate from the rates for fares as approved by resolution of the City Council of Escanaba.

SECTION 902. POSTING OF RATES. There shall be posted in each taxicab in a position to be visible to any passenger, a card or sheet showing the rates of fare set forth by Council resolution and a map showing the areas included in each zone.

CHAPTER X MARKING OF VEHICLES

SECTION 1001. MARKING. Every taxicab licensed under the provisions of this ordinance shall have the name of the owner thereof or owning company plainly painted on the main panel of either each front door or each rear door of said vehicle in letters at least three inches in height.

SECTION 1101. COMPANY LICENSE. When it is apparent that the existing taxicab facilities will be overburdened due to unusual situations, such as large conventions, any licensee may secure a license to operate additional taxicabs for a period not to exceed ten (10) days. Such license shall only be issued when the City Manager or his duly authorized representative shall determine that a public need exists for additional taxi service. Each vehicle for such license shall be one dollar ($1.00).

SECTION 1102. EMERGENCY DRIVERS. Each owner of a taxicab or taxicabs may be permitted to use emergency drivers when the occasion demands, provided that such emergency drivers be registered with and approved by the Chief of Police, and further provided that such emergency drivers are not permitted to drive a taxicab for more than forty-eight hours in any single month. If an emergency driver is to drive a taxicab in any single month, he must secure a taxi driver's permit as provided for herein.

CHAPTER XII GENERAL PENALTY

SECTION 1201. FINE. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction shall pay a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and on default thereof shall be confined in the city jail not exceeding ten (10) days. Any person convicted of a second violation of this ordinance, said license or permit shall be cancelled.

CHAPTER XIII REPEAL

SECTION 1301. OTHER ORDINANCES. Ordinance No. 155 and all ordinances amendatory thereto, and all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER XIV SAVING CLAUSE

SECTION 1401. VALIDITY. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The City Council hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase be declared unconstitutional.

CHAPTER XV EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 1501. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect ten days after its passage and publication.

FORGE M. HARVEY, City Clerk.

Both Mrs. FDR and Spellman Supported In School Aid Issue

gion, or restricting the free exercise thereof."

"They have insisted that the American idea of a common public school, free and open to all without discrimination, shall be scrapped," Norton said. "They urge that the control of education be placed in the hands of various religious denominations and that public funds be allocated to the schools of these denominations."

Dr. Behnken, said the Lutheran church supports the largest system of protestant parochial schools in the country. He said Lutherans deplore Cardinal Spellman's attack, and stand by the "cherished ideal" of church-state separation.

He declared there must be "a clear understanding that no governmental assistance can be given to support the instructional program of church schools."

Dr. Behnken said he and his associates are convinced that Mrs. Roosevelt's writings "were not hostile to religion or to any individual church."

In Massachusetts, 15 Protestant clergymen and laymen called for repeal of a state law permitting the state to pay for transporting parochial school pupils.

CONGRESS KEEPS OUT OF HOT DEBATE ON SCHOOL AID ISSUE

Washington, July 28 (AP)—Congress showed no disposition today to stick its chin out on the hot issue of federal aid to education.

They introduced a bill yesterday to provide federal money solely according to state need, and spelling out the right of the states to use it—or not—on parochial and other "nonpublic" schools as they saw fit.

In general, the bill sets up the national education average as the goal for the states to shoot at, and authorizes help only for those states falling below.

But with time running short, there appeared little or no likelihood that congress would act now before adjournment.

GROUSE ARE COMING BACK

355,000 Taken In State Last Year

Lansing, July 28 (AP)—Ruffed grouse are coming back in Michigan about as fast as in Wisconsin and Minnesota where the season was closed on the birds in an effort to bring them back, the Michigan Conservation department said today.

The grouse began to decline all over their range in 1943. Minnesota kept the season closed between 1944 and 1947 and Wisconsin between 1945 and 1947. Michigan permitted hunting through the decline.

The computed kill in Minnesota last year was 354,000 and in Wisconsin 250,000. Michigan's computed kill for the year was 355,000.

While the Minnesota and Wisconsin seasons were closed Michigan hunters harvested 838,000 grouse.

THREE DEMOES TO BE CHOSEN

Mackinac Island Board Will Be Changed

Lansing, July 28 (AP)—Three appointments to the Mackinac Island State Park commission will be made this week, Governor Williams said today.

Williams has previously said that in any but the most extraordinary circumstance, he would appoint Democrats to any positions he has to fill.

If three Democrats are appointed, their votes would balance the three remaining Republicans.

Dorothy Popko,
James Anderson
Married Today

Zion Lutheran church at Mercer, Wisconsin, gladioli of varied shades and other fresh-cut flowers decorating its altars, was the setting for the service at one o'clock this afternoon at which Dorothy Katherine Popko, of 817 1/2 Ludington street, Escanaba, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Popko of Mercer, became the bride of James Wendell Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson. The vows were spoken before Rev. R. C. Biesman of Hurley, Wisconsin.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was preceded down the white carpeted aisle by Miss Normalee Baldaut of Mercer, as maid of honor and Miss Jean Popko, her sister, and Miss Joan Blaha, both of Mercer, who were bridesmaids. Jack Johnson of Gladstone, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and ushering were Robert Popko of Mercer, and bride's brother, and her cousin, Donald Roberge of Iron Mountain.

Gown Of White Satin

The bride's gown of white satin was styled with a sheer nylon yoke, close-fitting shirred bodice, tapering sleeves and a full length train. Her fingertip veil was caught to a tiara of seed pearls. Her jewelry was her bridegroom's gift, a double strand of pearls, and her flowers were a bridal bouquet of pink roses, with an orchid center. The maid of honor wore aqua taffeta and the bridesmaids, yellow taffeta. The gowns were made with snug bodices, short sleeves and full bustle back skirts and were complemented by matching gauntlets. The maid of honor wore a matching picture hat and carried yellow roses and white gladioli and the bridesmaids wore matching blouses and carried pink roses and white gladioli.

Mrs. Popko selected an aqua dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding and the bridegroom's mother wore navy with white accessories. Red roses and white gladioli formed their corsages.

The traditional bridal music was played by Miss Edna Peters, organist, and the choir sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "O Perfect Love."

A wedding dinner for forty guests was served at Beaver Lodge at Mercer, gladioli in pastel colors decorating the tables, and a reception was held at the bride's home for 150 guests. A four-tiered wedding cake, trimmed with pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom, centered the table and at either side were fresh garden flowers in crystal bowls and matching tapers.

Will Live In Gladstone

The newlyweds after a honeymoon at the Wisconsin Dells and in Milwaukee, will live in Gladstone at 505 Wisconsin avenue. For going-away the bride selected a green gabardine suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage.

UNEMPLOYMENT CLAIMS GROW

The active file count of the Manistique branch of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission shows a marked increase over that of the count for July a year ago, it is revealed.

Current records show a total of 253 applicants for benefits of which 21 were women and 137 veterans. In sharp contrast with these figures are those of July 1948 where the file count was 98, with four women listed and 66 veterans. Coleman Canning Co.,
Beginning Operations

Operation of the new unit of the Coleman Canning company here is gradually getting under way.

The past weekend a brief test run on yellow beans was made and about 70 cases packed.

Jack Ulrich, plant manager, said the tests were very satisfactory although there are some minor adjustments to be made.

Another run will be made today.

At the present, approximately 35 persons are employed. Manager Ulrich said, however, he anticipates in about two weeks when the crop is at its height and the plant gets operating fully there will be between 140 and 150 persons employed.

Not only will beans be canned here this year but an experimental canning of tomatoes is planned. About 60,000 plants were set out under contract and despite some loss from frost there will be a sufficient yield to provide fruit for several thousand cases.

There are ten steps in the processing of beans.

Weighing comes first. They then go through a machine which snips the ends off and then drop from a revolving drum onto an endless belt where inspectors watch for unspiced or spoiled beans. Cut into half-inch lengths they are graded for size, then blanched. They are then conveyed to the filling machine.

Empty cans, revolving on the filling machine receive a 60-grain tablet of salt, the beans in measured amounts and travel to the sealer where the caps are placed and sealed.

Filled cans are then placed in crates which are handled by electric crane and placed in retorts where they are cooked for 20 minutes at 240 degrees.

They are then cooled and taken to the boxing room. Labels are later applied.

Country Gardens, Green Acres and Crystal Brook are among the trade names used for merchandising of Coleman products. Packs are also made for chain stores in these instances the purchasing firms use their own labels.

George Hanson, Coleman, Wis., general manager of the Coleman company, was here for the initial test.

FARM AUCTIONS
WILL BE HELDChamber Of Commerce
To Arrange For Sales

The idea of holding farm auctions here periodically was received with favor at a general meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening.

According to the explanation made by Secretary Joe VanArman a suitable place downtown would be procured where articles could be brought by anyone wishing and once a month or oftener an auctioneer would be procured who would handle the sale of the articles.

Articles might range from a tractor to grandfathers' clock. Anything that is saleable could be brought. A percentage is charged the owners of articles brought to the auction for making the sale.

Just when plans will be completed for the first auction are uncertain at present.

Continue Drive To Cut Traffic Speed,
Reduce Death Toll

The state safety commission's current campaign to reduce speeding has been necessitated by the excessive number of deaths attributed to this form of reckless driving, according to Sgt. Willard Wixom, commanding officer of the Gladstone post of the Michigan State Police.

Police agencies of the state are cooperating in the special emphasis program, which is part of a nation-wide effort being carried on during July and August under the auspices of the National Safety Council.

"State Police records show there were 1,502 persons killed and 40,892 injured in 149,172 traffic accidents in Michigan last year," Sgt. Wixom said. "Speed was the direct cause of one-third of the deaths and a contributory cause in most of the others."

"Contrary to widespread belief, Michigan does have a speed law applying to the open highway. The law does not set the limit at a specific number of miles per hour, but it does require that a car be driven no faster than is reasonable under existing conditions, such as the weather, visibility, volume of traffic, hour of the day, and similar factors. Sometimes that could mean that 10 miles an hour is too fast."

END YEAR WITH
CASH BALANCEPublic Schools Financial Report Is Submitted

Cost of operation of the Gladstone Public School system during the past fiscal year, July 1, 1948 to June 30, 1949, totaled $139,605.22, according to the financial report submitted to the board of education at a meeting here Tuesday.

Receipts during the same fiscal period totaled $144,996.02 which along with a cash balance on hand July 1, 1948 of $10,194.62 gave the local school system total receipts for the year of $155,190.64.

Thus the cash on hand or balance as of June 30, 1949 is $15,585.42, or almost $5,400 more than a year ago.

However, this balance will be greatly reduced, Secretary A. D. Harris indicates, through the construction of new locker and shower rooms and the payment of a tariff surfacing which has been placed on a considerable portion of school grounds on the north side.

Stranahan Ousted In Canada Golf; Chapman Still In

Saint John, N. B., July 28 (AP)—America's hopes in the Canadian amateur golf champions rested with Dick Chapman as play entered the quarterfinals today.

The Pinehurst, N. C., veteran became the only U. S. survivor after yesterday's expulsion of defending champion Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio. Tommy Riddell, Quebec amateur king, ended the muscular American's two-year reign; one up in 19 holes.

Chapman, 1940 American amateur champion and 1947 runnerup for the British amateur title, had little trouble getting past the two 18-hole rounds yesterday. He first defeated Doug Bajus, Vancouver, 4 and 2, then took his afternoon match from Vern Mohs, Edmonton, Alta., 6 and 4.

McCosky's Bad Back Failing to Respond

Philadelphia, July 28 (AP)—William (Barney) McCosky, the Philadelphia Athletics regular left-fielder in 1946-47-48, has returned to his home in Dearborn, Mich.

McCosky's name came off the American league's disabled list yesterday and he immediately packed his bags with the observation "much as I love the game, I guess I'll have to give it up for the present."

The back ailment which put the veteran McCosky on the injured list in May has not responded to treatment.

He will play no baseball in 1949. He may never play again. McCosky, 31, had a batting average of .320 for the seven years he played with the Detroit Tigers and Athletics.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Batting—Marv Rickert, Braves, hit two-run homer in 13th inning for Boston's 9-7 edge over Cincinnati.

Pitching—Mel Parnell, Red Sox shut out White Sox with three hits, 6-0, for 14th win and 17th complete game in 21 starts.

George Kell is back banging the ball for Detroit. He missed part of last season with a broken jaw, the result of stopping a Joe DiMaggio grounder.

Managers Announce North-South Squads For Rainbow All-Star Game In Trenary

Players selected to participate in the Rainbow Baseball league all-star game in Trenary at 2:30 this Sunday afternoon were announced this morning by the managers, E. L. "Doc" Miller, Gwinn, of the North, and Onen E. Rosio, Chatham, of the South.

For the first time, the annual all-star classic will be held in Trenary, which was selected by all managers because it was the most centrally located of all communities represented in the Rainbow league. Previously the game has been held in Negaunee but of recent years it has not been too successful.

Every effort is being made by George Brown, of Trenary, genial league president, and his cohorts to make this year's tilt a very successful affair. Brown this morning expressed his thanks for the cooperation he is getting in staging the affair in his home town.

Gladstone and Manistique each was honored by having five players named for the South all-star lineup. Chatham also placed five and Trenary will be represented by six of its heavy-hitting aces. Pado made the selections.

Gladstone's representatives are M. Rothschild, B. Bizeau, D. Sidbeck, A. LeGault and F. Schneese. Manistique will have M. Rhoads, T. Ross, A. DeMars, H. Archey and D. Martin on the squad. Chatham's players honored are J. Kangas, R. Vadnais, H. Kallio, R. Maki and N. Salminen, and the Trenary sextet is composed of R. Druckenmiller, V. Trotter who doubles as the league statistician, D. Haapala, A. Hytinen, D. Latvala and G. Brown.

The North all-star group is complete with the exception of Negaunee. The Rovers are entered in a tournament now being conducted, and "Doc" Miller reports that Sam Fort, Negaunee Rover manager, will not be able to send his selection in until Friday night.

Fort and George Syrjala, of Di-Orite, will assist Miller with the coaching. Joe Chartrand, Munising manager, will be playing and will not assist with the managing and coaching of the team.

"Hope we have nice weather, a big crowd and the North can twist their tails," Miller says, in reporting the makeup of his squad, as follows:

Munising—Joe Chartrand, catcher; Jimmy Swenor, shortstop; George Sharkey, first baseman; Kenneth Pangborn, outfielder, and R. Ericson, pitcher.

Diorite—Bob Laakso, pitcher; Sterling Schultz, catcher; James Trewnick, second baseman; Lyle Ogea, outfielder and infielder, and Carl Grund, outfielder.

Gwinn—Alden Trombly, pitcher-outfielder; Earl Ayoote, pitcher-infielder; Louis Paris, outfielder; Hugo Soyring, infielder; Peter Zenti, infield-catcher.

Brooklyn Dodgers snapped their four game losing skid yesterday, crushing the Chicago Cubs, 7-3. Bruce Edwards and Gil Hodges featured the triumph with home runs. Big Don Newcombe, with help from Erv Palica in the eighth, gained credit for his ninth victory of the season.

He said he would not take a "driver's test" over the 42-mile Harmsworth route to see whether he or Wild Bill Cantrell would pilot My Sweetie.

"I'm on the Harmsworth team," Dodge insisted. "All the committee has to know is that I'll be on the course in time to answer the five minute gun."

"I'll be first across the line, first under the bridge, and you take a guess who'll be the first to finish. I know."

Although the Harmsworth Selection committee announced informally early this week it would team My Sweetie with Skip-a-Long and Such Crust, I, further trials today might make members change their minds.

If either Jack Shafer's Such Crust II or Henry Kaiser's Aluminum I should make a sensational showing, My Sweetie might well be out of the picture.

In the meantime, the committee wondered about the whereabouts of the challenger, Harold Wilson's Miss Canada IV, due to make a trial run today.

She was due to arrive yesterday from Ingersoll, Ont., but was delayed enroute.

Twilight Results At Escanaba Club
In twilight league matches at the Escanaba Golf club this week, S. R. Venne's team topped W. P. Schuldes, 5½ to 2½, M. N. Smith triumphed over Dr. J. J. Welch's team, 4½-3½, H. J. Norton bested the G. R. Stegath aggregation, 5-3, and B. W. Hall tied with the Gust Asp group, 4-4.

'LITTLE OLYMPICS'
Oslo, Norway, July 28 (AP)—The powerful United States track and field squad figured to take the lead tonight in the second session of the three-day "little olympics."

The combined Scandinavia team held a 104½ to 78½ advantage after the first nine events, most of them Nordic specialties.

Jump On Kretlow
The Washington club got an early jump on rookie Kretlow, picking up one run in the first and three in the second. The Tigers necked away at Hudson's offerings and had a 5 to 4 lead when their half of the fifth was over.

But the Senators came back to score two runs in the fifth and one in the seventh off Grissom before Stubby Overmire took over pitching chores. Art Houtteman also saw service in the opener after the Senators had gained a lead they did not relinquish.

Hutchinson had no need of any assistance in the second game. He never gave the Senators more than one hit in an inning, and walked only two men. Everett Robinson, who hit two doubles, was the only Senator to reach second.

George Kell's triple, Groth's double and a single by Pat Mullin combined with a Washington error to give the Tigers a two-run lead in the first.

That was really all that Hutch needed, but Detroit bats had plenty more in store.

In the third the Bengals got four runs on singles by Berry, Groth and Kolloway and a couple of bases on balls. Hutchinson's single and an error added another score in the fourth.

Then, in the sixth, five singles put over four more scores to run the Tiger tally to its final figure.

CONTENDER—Mrs. Frank J. Russell, Jr., Marquette, was a strong contender for the U. P. women's golf title. She went to the 18th hole in Marquette yesterday before being eliminated by the tourney medalist, 17-year-old Betty Zeugner, Norway.

Tiger Batters Rattle 32 Hits But Gain Only Split With Washington

Marquette, Mich., July 28—Betty Zeugner opposed Connie Colby, Sault Ste. Marie, for the Upper Peninsula Women's golf championship here this afternoon. The medalist from Norway, Mich. entered the final round by defeating Mrs. Frank J. Russell, Jr., of Marquette, one up. Her opponent was an 8-6 winner against Mrs. Robert Harrison, Marquette, in yesterday's semifinals.

Washington, July 28 (AP)—A sizzling 65 set by Slammin' Sammy Snead this Spring is the target for today as the National Junior golf championship meet enters the second round.

The teen-age golfers may have set their sights a bit high but there was evidence in yesterday's opening round that the mark is well within reach. Snead, incidentally, made his 65 on the Congressional Club course when it was in better shape than it is now.

An unheralded youngster from Dayton, Ohio, who took the 6,350, par-71 course for a four-under 67 may equal Snead's score. His name's Pat Schwab.

The 1948 Missouri State Junior titleist, Graham Hunt from Kansas City, may be able to swing it, too. In the first round, he didn't do too bad with a two-under 69.

From Dixieland, Atlanta's Tony Baker and Shreveport's Tommy Morrow may turn the trick. After winning his match on the 14th hole in the first round, Baker coasted in with a par 71. Morrow, the Louisiana State junior champ, didn't try for a par bettering mark in downing Washington's Kay Fletcher, but thinks he'll have a try at it today.

Here are the scores of yesterday's matches involving Michigan players:

Lawrence Bentley, Plymouth, defeated Billy Gooch, Huntington, W. Va., one up.

Donald E. Albert, Alliance Ohio, defeated George Williams, Monroe, one up, 19 holes.

Ronald La Frensch, Lansing, defeated John Gleason, Kingston, N. Y., 4 and 3.

Softball
Tonight's schedule: Memorial field, 7:15 — Clairmont's vs. Hughes — Tomlinson; 8:45—Merchants vs. White Birch. Hyde—Larmay's vs. Liberty Loan. Royce—Steam Laundry vs. K-C. Dock—Northland vs. Boilermakers. Webster—PAH Welders vs. Independents.

Dodge Says He's In If His Boat Is On The Line

Detroit, July 28 (AP)—If My Sweetie gets into the Harmsworth Trophy race—and owner Horace Dodge is sure she will—the 49-year-old millionaire is determined to drive her himself.

Dodge, who purchased the gold cup winner a few weeks ago and then gave her a rather disappointing run in the Detroit river trials last weekend, declined yesterday to run any risk of being counted out of Saturday's trophy race.

He said he would not take a "driver's test" over the 42-mile Harmsworth route to see whether he or Wild Bill Cantrell would pilot My Sweetie.

"I'm on the Harmsworth team," Dodge insisted. "All the committee has to know is that I'll be on the course in time to answer the five minute gun."

NETS OF NYLON UNDER ATTACK

Great Lakes Opponents In Hearing Today

A new threat to the Great Lakes commercial fishing industry—intrusion of nylon netting which some users claim increase catches as much as 300 per cent, and hence further deplete fish supplies, today were aired at a special conference in the U. S. courthouse in Erie, Pa.

Possible regulation of the new-type nets will be discussed at the meeting which will be attended by Dr. John Van Oosten, chief of Great Lakes fishery investigations for the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Fred Westerman, Michigan conservation department fish chief, as well as conservation officials of Canada and other states including Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. Commercial fishing operators and representatives of net manufacturers also were invited to the hearing.

A few Michigan, other Great Lakes states and Canadian commercial fishermen now are using this expensive but more effective netting which hangs in the water better, has better wearing qualities, sharper twine and requires less twine to catch the same quantity of fish. Many Great Lakes operators who have large investments in cotton or linen fishing gear view the new nets with alarm, and one Canadian fishermen's association already has gone on record as favoring control of the tonnage of fish taken with these nets providing it is done on an international basis.

At one time commercial fishermen used linen nets almost entirely. When linen became scarce and high priced, they turned to cotton especially for the small-mesh nets. Although less expensive, cotton nets always have presented a law enforcement problem because of shrinkage.

Commercial fish production in all Michigan waters of the Great Lakes amounted to a below-normal 7,300,000 pounds through May, with the lamprey, weather and some pollution getting most of the blame by fishermen.

Harry Bird in one of Rapid River's early Fourth of July celebrations had the thumb of his right hand blown off by a giant firecracker. He was treated by the late Dr. Sam Kitchen, then a newcomer to the community, in the office of the late Dr. A. L. Laing.
